Better start to 2017 for mechanical engineering than for some years

Prospects and order balances for both UK and export business combined to produce the best New Year returns for three years, according to the Engineering and Machinery Alliance's (EAMA) Business Monitor.

Martin Walder, EAMA chairman: "Performance this January compares very favourably with the last two years and confidence, despite the many uncertainties is also definitely positive. However, after an encouraging shift in the underlying data in recent months that saw companies reporting declines in the number of orders shrinking, this month saw the process reversed with an unfortunate increase.

"This month the cohort reporting export business unchanged halved and statistically the overwhelming majority of the 'lost' companies slid over into the 'faller' category. As a result a third (32%) of all exporters said they had fewer orders.

"This isn't entirely unexpected at the start of the year, when compared with January returns in previous years, but we did think the underlying favourable exchange rate might have helped to increase the dynamics behind export demand so that there would be a smaller proportion of firms than in the past reporting order numbers down at the start of the year.

"We expect to see improvements over the remainder of Q1."

Notes to editors:

1. EAMA's 14 trade associations represent 2,000 firms: Agricultural Engineers Association, -- British Automation and Robot Association -- British Compressed Air Society -- British Fluid Power Association -- British Paper Machinery Suppliers Association -- British Plastics Federation -- British Turned Part Manufacturers Association -- Gambica -- Gauge and Toolmakers Association -- Manufacturing Technologies Association -- Printing Industry Confederation -- Processing and Packaging Machinery Association -- Solids Handling and Processing Association -- UK Industrial Vision Association
2. There's no December Monitor as the business period for many firms is only a three-week span.
3. The Monitor records the proportion of firms in each category, not the number or size of enquiries, orders etc
4. The Monitor averages between 80-110 returns each month
5. Monitor reports for 2010-2011 are available on the EAMA website: www.eama.info
